MINISTRY OF STEEL, MINES AND FUEL (Department of Iron and Steel) Iron and Steel Control NOTIFICATIONS

Calcutta 1, the 25th August 1960

No. 1/1-1/IP/60—It has been observed that frequent requests are being made by the licence-holders for extension of the date of validity of their licences. The following procedure, which is generally followed by this office, may kindly be noted for guidance:—

- (i) The request for revalidation should reach this office within the period of validity of the licence (at least a fortnight before the expiry of the licence) accompanied by documentary evidence from the foreign suppliers to the effect that firm order has been placed and that supply of materials/shipment of goods has been delayed due to unavoidable circumstances. The foreign supplier's letter/cable should indicate specific period of delivery.

- (ii) No request for revalidation will be entertained in cases where the Letter of Credit has not been opened within a reasonable period, say two months from the date of receipt of the Import licence. Where opening of the Letter of Credit is not a condition of the acceptance of order necessary documentary evidence to that effect should be produced from the foreign suppliers.

- (iii) Ordinarily licences will not be revalidated for more than three months at a time.

Licence-holders are requested not to make any request for revalidation unless they comply with the above provisions.
